

PEPPERMINT

1. Calm a Tempest. Rub on the stomach can calm indigestion, an upset stomach or other internal digestive commotion. A must-have when traveling!
2. It's About Air Flow. When sinuses seem to be clogged, and throats swollen and scratchy, apply topically on the chest for revitalizing air flow. Peppermint acts as an expectorant and may provide relief for colds, cough, sinusitis, asthma, and bronchitis.
3. Cool the Joints. When the ravages of time wreak havoc on your joints, leaving that hot and achy feeling, peppermint oil mixed with lavender oil cools like an ice bath, but you stay warm and dry.
4. Feel Full, Faster. Satiety. It's about feeling full, and not overeating. The aroma of peppermint oil has the ability to make you feel full, faster
5. Perk Up. The invigorating aroma of peppermint is a wonderful, non-stimulating way to perk up on long drives, in school, during late night homework or any other time you need to "burn the midnight oil."
6. Allergies Beware. Peppermint oil has the ability to relax smooth muscles in the body – the same muscles that line our airways and become affected in allergy season. Peppermint oil (with lavender) should certainly be another arrow in your allergy treatment quiver!
7. Chase Away Tension Headaches. Got a mind numbing headache? A few drops of peppermint dabbed on your temples, neck and sinuses can quickly spring into action and chase that headache away!
8. Help Kids Get on the Ball. Apply under the nose for improved concentration and alertness.
9. Seep, Soak & Revitalize. After a long day, apply peppermint, let it seep in and then soak in a warm bath or shower. The refreshing peppermint vapor will make you feel cool, relaxed and energized again.
10. A "Should I Work Out Today?" Antidote. You ask yourself this question. It's OK. Using peppermint oil prior to exercise immediately awakens your senses and gets you in your right mind so you can crank.
11. A Snack Vendor's Nightmare. When you get that mid-morning craving, apply and inhale peppermint oil to reign in the urge to snack on junk food!
12. Wake Up Your Mind. Peppermint oil activates the limbic function in your brain. The limbic function helps control things like emotions and long-term memory and is related to olfactory structures in your nose.
13. An Itch Fix. If you have the after effects of a sunburn where skin is a little warm and itchy, apply peppermint oil (mixed with lavender) to cool, soothe and stop itching.
14. Theme Park Relief. If you've got that "I my gosh, I can't believe I just went on a spinning ride" feeling, peppermint rubbed on the stomach can calm smooth stomach muscles and help dispel discomfort
15. Sleep Like a Baby. If you find you are having a hard time sleeping, peppermint oil helps activate cold-sensitive receptors in the skin and mucosal tissues. When used this way, it may help with insomnia.
16. Quell Apathy. When you're with someone who feels gloomy or like they "just don't care", ask them to try peppermint oil to stimulate their mental sharpness and focus.
17. It's About a State of Mind. Someone's mental outlook can be a game changer. If they are shocked, stressed out or nervous, peppermint oil may help restore feelings of normalcy and balance.
18. Alleviate Internal Strife. When used topically, peppermint is a favorite for fresh relief from cramping, indigestion to diarrhea. Skip the antacids and go with peppermint
19. For That "Marathon in Clogs" Feeling. When you feel like you've just run a marathon in clogs, and your feet are a hot mess of ouch, massage peppermint oil onto aching feet, joints, and strained muscles.
20. Leap from Lethargic. Feeling lethargic or in a brain fog? Peppermint has been known to improve blood circulation and awareness, leaving you with an energized, awake feeling.
21. Buoyant Heart. Peppermint is known as the oil of a buoyant and joyful heart. It invigorates the mind, body and spirit. It'll remind you that life can be happy.
